INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM ON CONTAMINATION CONTROL

15-18 OCTOBER 2024 MILAN, ITALY

CONNECTING THE DOTS...
OF CONTAMINATION CONTROL

ASCCA, Associazione per lo Studio e il Controllo della Contaminazione

Exhibitors and Sponsors prospectus

A warm welcome to Italy!
Connecting the dots... of contamination control!

It is a great privilege for ASCCA, the Italian Society of Contamination Control, to host in Milan – Italy, the 26th edition of ISCC, International Symposium of Contamination Control on behalf of ICCCS, International Confederation of Contamination Control Societies.

ISCC2024 will bring together leading technology providers, end users of the different areas of use of contamination control, academic scientists, and international regulators to network, share insights and provide an outlook on the evolving landscape and future of cleanroom technology and side applications.

Attendees will have the opportunity to engage with industry leaders, regulators, and peers through networking events like workshops, tutorials and site visits.

On behalf of ASCCA and the whole organization team, we look forward to meeting you in Milan in October 2024... and do not forget to discover the wonders of Italy!

Ciao

Sergio Mauri
ASCCA President and ISCC 2024 Symposium Chair

The venue

ISCC2024 will take place at Hotel Melià, in downtown Milan, from 15th to 17th October.

The final day of the Symposium, October 18th, will consist of a practical workshop at Politecnico di Milano Bovisa. Milan is a vibrant city, capital of fashion, glamour and the latest trends. The booming district of Zona Lotto is home to the Melià Milano. Fully renovated, it reflects the innovative design and elegance for which the capital of Lombardy is famous. Located in the district that is defining the personality of the new Milan, this city hotel is the ideal choice for both business and leisure travellers. Just 15 minutes by metro from the historic centre and the legendary Duomo.

Exhibition space

To facilitate contact with delegates, the exhibition area is positioned adjacent the technical sessions and refreshment space. All exhibition spaces will be provided with a shell scheme and of a first come first served basis.
